HUNGARY

9.1.2017

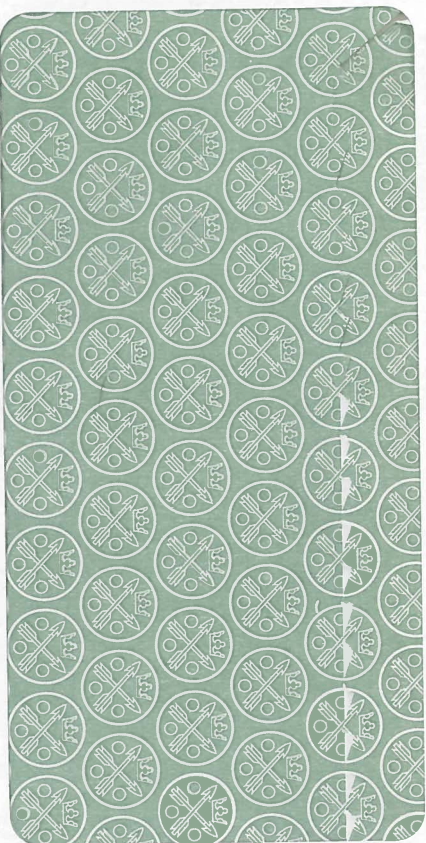

As stated in the notice sent to the Company your appeal has been forwarded to the Board of Adjustment. No cover letter was attached as your appeal was forwarded as it was.

Your appeal will be processed and if it's assessed that some further information is required then you will receive a letter stating what is needed. If no additional information or documentation is required the Board of Adjustment will make a ruling which will then be communicated to you.

If you have further documents you wish to provide the Board of Adjustment with, you may send them to the address stated in the upper left corner.

For any additional guidance, please contact me. Address your reply to me.
